

The Blue Sox Need YOU!

The second season of the Australian Baseball League is just around the corner and the Sydney Blue Sox are looking to follow up a very successful inaugural season, both on and off the diamond. A lot of the credit for the off-field success goes to the Blue Sox fantastic volunteers. If you came out to a Blue Sox game last year they were the friendly people serving frosty beverages and hot dogs, scanning your ticket at the gate, getting you kitted out in fantastic Blue Sox merchandise, giving the kids some pointers in the batting cages, showing you to your seat, helping out with the grounds crew and basically making sure that Sydney was the best place to watch a game of baseball in the county.

With a new season and more seating available at the stadium, we are looking to add to the volunteer ranks. If you are interested in joining the Sydney Blue Sox team, now is the time to get involved. The Blue Sox are having a volunteers meeting at Sydney Blue Sox Stadium @ Blacktown International Sports Park this Wednesday night, the 12th of October at 7pm. Come along, bring a friend and find out all you need to know about volunteering and meet the rest of this baseball loving crew.

This is a great chance to be a part of Sydney's only pro baseball team, not to mention rub shoulders with some of the best young talent that Australia and the World has to offer in a fun, friendly atmosphere.

If you can't make the meeting, but are still interested in joining the team please email Matt Cooper or call the Blue Sox on 8006 1423 to register your interest or get more information.
